ST. VINCENT de PAUL NEWS

In Mark's Gospel Today, Jesus tells us clearly how we will be judged.
Judged: "Whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of Others."

Some Examples: Help an older person return their grocery cart to its proper place, or listen to someone who is upset, instead of walking away, try not to raise your voice if someone is upsetting you, donate clothing, household items and furniture to a St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store.

There are so many ways to be good to someone else. You truly will be blessed in Heaven.

God Bless You! - Paul Novotny

Dear Parish Family,

"...the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many…" (Mk 10:35-45).

Jesus Christ came to ransom His people. The dictionary definition for 'ransom" is the following: "a sum of money or other payment demanded or paid for the release of a prisoner." Our Lord came to pay the debt that we couldn't pay on our own. He came to deliver us from the oppressor, the Devil himself. Jesus Christ came to serve us--"prisoners" of sin and darkness--in order that we may be set free through His passion, death and resurrection. This freedom that we are called to came at a very high price, Jesus' own life.

The prophet Isaiah reveals to us in the first reading that "Through his suffering, my servant shall justify many and their guilt he shall bear…" (Is 53:10-11). Because our Lord has paid what we couldn't, we are able to be free from sin and Satan himself. Death no longer holds us hostage, and we are able to have hope in the fact that God walks with us and continues to nurture us through His mystical body, the Church.

While it is true that Jesus Christ has paid our debt, we are still struggling with the consequences of original sin. Concupiscence -- our tendency towards sin -- continues to be a real struggle for us. It is a reality that we must embrace and ask our Lord to help us battle. This is why the letter to the Hebrews reminds us that we must be confident in approaching the throne of grace to receive mercy and find grace for our help. We are also reminded that Jesus is the Son of God who is able to sympathize with us and our struggle. God knows what you and I go through. He desires to help, and that is why He gives us the Sacraments through His Church, so that we may approach the throne of grace and be fed by Him, the source of life and mercy.

Every time we gather for Mass, we are approaching the throne of grace. We stand before the person of Jesus Christ, the high priest, in every ordained priest who celebrates the Mass. The passion and death of our Lord is commemorated and we confidently approach His throne to be fed by Himself in the Eucharist.

This week we are called to ponder and reflect on where it is that Satan wants to continue to hold us hostage through our weaknesses. In the midst of those struggles, we are called to invoke the light of the Holy Spirit to illuminate that area of our hearts so that through His power, we may be rescued and healed by Him. We must not be afraid to invoke the presence of God in those areas of our hearts that are wounded and hurting. God understands, and it is precisely for this reason that He was willing to shed His blood for our sake, so that through His precious blood may be restored and protected from Satan himself.

May we approach the throne of grace and mercy, the Altar of sacrifice, with humility and willingness to surrender our woundedness at the feet of Jesus. We are no longer hostages to sin and darkness; we are called to be free through the sacrifice of Jesus on the Cross. May we never forget the high price of our freedom and salvation. Indeed, we are no longer prisoners, but rescued beloved children of the Father.

In His Most Sacred Heart,

Fr. José

Estimada Familia Parroquial,

"... el Hijo del Hombre, que no ha venido a que lo sirvan, sino a servir y a dar su vida por la redención de todos…" (Mc 10, 35-45).

Jesucristo vino a rescatar a su pueblo. La definición del diccionario para "rescate" es la siguiente: "una suma de dinero u otro pago exigido o pagado por la liberación de un prisionero". Nuestro Señor vino a pagar la deuda que no podíamos pagar por nuestra cuenta. Vino a librarnos del opresor, el diablo mismo. Jesucristo vino a servirnos - "prisioneros" del pecado y las tinieblas - para que podamos ser liberados a través de Su pasión, muerte y resurrección. Esta libertad a la que estamos llamados tuvo un precio muy alto, la propia vida de Jesús. El profeta Isaías nos revela en la primera lectura que "Con sus sufrimientos, mi siervo justificará a muchos, y cargando con los crímenes de ellos…" (Is 53, 10-11). Debido a que nuestro Señor ha pagado lo que nosotros no pudimos, podemos ser libres del pecado y del mismo Satanás. La muerte ya no nos retiene como rehenes, y podemos tener esperanza en el hecho de que Dios camina con nosotros y continúa nutriéndonos a través de Su cuerpo místico, la Iglesia.

Si bien es cierto que Jesucristo ha pagado nuestra deuda, todavía estamos luchando con las consecuencias del pecado original. La concupiscencia, nuestra tendencia al pecado, sigue siendo una verdadera lucha para nosotros. Es una realidad que debemos abrazar y pedirle a nuestro Señor que nos ayude a luchar. Por eso la carta a los Hebreos nos recuerda que debemos tener confianza al acercarnos al trono de la gracia para recibir misericordia y encontrar la gracia para obtener ayuda. También se nos recuerda que Jesús es el Hijo de Dios que puede compadecerse de nosotros y nuestra lucha, Dios sabe por lo que pasamos tú y yo.

Él nos quiere ayudar y por eso nos da los sacramentos a través de su iglesia, para que nos acerquemos al trono de la gracia y seamos alimentados por él, fuente de vida y misericordia. Cada vez que nos reunimos para la Misa, nos acercamos al trono de la gracia, estamos ante la persona de Jesucristo, el sumo sacerdote en todo sacerdote ordenado que celebra la Misa. Se conmemora la pasión y muerte de nuestro Señor y nos acercamos confiadamente a Su trono para ser alimentados por Él mismo en la Eucaristía.

Esta semana estamos llamados a meditar y reflexionar sobre dónde es que Satanás quiere seguir manteniéndonos como rehenes a través de nuestras debilidades. En medio de esas luchas, estamos llamados a invocar la luz del Espíritu Santo para iluminar esa área de nuestro corazón para que a través de Su poder, podamos ser rescatados y sanados por Él. No debemos tener miedo de invocar la presencia de Dios en aquellas áreas de nuestro corazón que están heridos y dolidos. Dios entiende, y es precisamente por eso que estuvo dispuesto a derramar Su sangre por nosotros, para que a través de Su preciosa sangre podamos ser restaurados y protegidos del mismo Satanás.

Ojala que nos acerquemos al trono de la gracia y la misericordia, al Altar del sacrificio, con humildad y voluntad de entregar nuestras heridas a los pies de Jesús. Ya no somos rehenes del pecado y la oscuridad; estamos llamados a ser libres mediante el sacrificio de Jesús en la Cruz. Que nunca olvidemos el alto precio de nuestra libertad y salvación. De hecho, ya no somos prisioneros, sino hijos amados del Padre rescatados.

En Su Sacratísimo Corazón,

P. José
