In today's Gospel, the disciples again struggle to recognize Jesus after His glorious resurrection. But then, they suddenly shout out in excitement, "it is the Lord!"

Do you struggle to recognize Jesus in your everyday life? We might be able to help you. Come join us on a visit to a family in need. It's not difficult to do. Listen to their words, try to understand their needs, experience a sharing of God's love for each other. And sometimes, if you are lucky, you may just see the face of Christ in that person sitting across the table from you. And then, you also can say "it is the Lord!"

Come join us. We need your help. There are lots of families in need. Call 437-8865 for more details and support.

A Continued Blessed Easter to You!

~ Paul Novotny

Dear & Good People of God,

THE LORD IS RISEN AS HE SAID ALLELUIA!

HE IS TRULY RISEN!
ALLELUIA! ALLELUIA!

Easter Sunday was two weeks ago now, but the Easter Season extends for fifty days, giving us a lengthy period to fully celebrate all the ways in which God brings new life into the world.

As trees bud and flowers bloom, as days grow long and the weather warms, we glory in the new life emerging around us.

As is written in the opening entrance antiphon, "Cry out with joy to God, all the earth." "ALLELUIA!"

THE WORD SPEAKS:

In the decades after the Resurrection, the Risen Lord was portrayed in many different ways.

In His Gospel, John shows Jesus interacting with his disciples in the flesh, as he had before his death and resurrection.

The author of Revelation visualizes Jesus in glory, surrounded by angels and heavenly creatures.

In the Book of Acts, Luke portrays Jesus always on the lips and in the minds of the apostles.

Listening to today's readings think about how you visualize Jesus.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK:

Have I failed to recognize Jesus standing before me in the light of dawn, encouraging me to do things in a different way? How do I respond to His loving and kind suggestion to change the way I am doing things?

The Merry MARY Month of May

Welcome Friends & Marian Devotees!

Bring flowers to the Fairest!

We have just entered the month dedicated to the motherhood of our dear Blessed Mother Mary. I invite us all to start (or continue) a daily Marian devotion.

Also, we have two areas within our Church that highlight the Mother of God: I invite you to bring flowers (fresh flowers only, please) to place before our Marian Shrines in Church all through the month of May, especially on Mother's Day.

First Holy Communion:

Jesus comes to our First Communicants this weekend, on Sunday, May 5th, at the 10am and 12:30pm Masses. Please pray for them as they reverently receive Christ in the Holy Eucharist:

¡El Señor ha resucitado! ¡ALELUIA! ¡ALELUIA!

Querida Familia Parroquial,

El domingo de Pascua fue hace dos semanas, pero la temporada de Pascua se extiende por cincuenta días, lo que nos da un largo período para celebrar plenamente todas las formas en que Dios trae nueva vida al mundo.

A medida que los árboles brotan y las flores florecen, a medida que los días crecen y el clima se calienta, nos gloriamos en la nueva vida que está surgiendo a nuestro alrededor.

¡ALELUYA! LA PALABRA HABLA, ALELUIA!

En las décadas posteriores a la Resurrección, el Señor resucitado fue representado de muchas maneras diferentes. En su Evangelio, Juan muestra a Jesús interactuando con sus discípulos en la carne, como lo había hecho antes de su muerte y resurrección. El autor de Apocalipsis visualiza a Jesús en gloria, rodeado de ángeles y criaturas celestiales. En el Libro de los Hechos, Lucas describe a Jesús como siempre estando en los labios y en las mentes de los apóstoles.

Escuchando las lecturas de las Escrituras de hoy, piense en cómo visualiza a Jesús.

Preguntas de la Semana:

¿He fallado en reconocer a Jesús ante mí y alentarme a hacer las cosas de una manera diferente?

¿Cómo respondo a su sugerencia amorosa y amable de cambiar la forma en que estoy haciendo las cosas?

Primeras Comuniones

Las primeras comuniones se celebrarán el próximo domingo 5 de mayo en la misa en inglés a las 10:00am, y en la misa en español a las 12:30pm.

*~Paz, y bendiciones de Pascua!
