Picnic Sponsors, Donors, & Gift Cards

Each year, one of the many things that contributes to the success of our annual Parish Picnic, is the fact that our parishioners step up to help Sponsor the Picnic, to make cash donations (so the committee can purchase needed supplies and other items), and to donate Gift Cards that can be used as prizes and incentives.

Once again, this year, we are in need of all of these items! If each adult parishioner would respond to one of these needs, we will be most grateful — and the success of this year's picnic will be assured!

Please contact Margo Thorsen in the parish office; 920.435.7548 for assistance in making your donation.

Blue Army of Our Lady—Annual Meeting

The Green Bay Diocesan Division of the World Apostolate of Fatima, USA, Inc. ~ Our Lady's Blue Army, will hold its annual meeting on Monday July 22nd, from 6:30pm-7:30pm, in the Church Hall of Ss. Peter & Paul Catholic Church ~ 700 North Baird Street in Green Bay.

All registered members of the division - as of June 30th, 2019 - are eligible to vote at this meeting, and everyone is welcome to attend.

The Mission of the World Apostolate of Fatima, USA, is to help people learn, live, and spread the message of Our Lady of Fatima in communion with the Church and in concert with the New Evangelization.

Becoming a member of the Blue Army involves a spiritual rather than a financial commitment. You are invited to come, learn, and to join us should you feel so called.

One By One Capital Campaign

Our parishes are places where we renew our faith as missionary disciples in a community of believers who trust in the truth and joy of the Gospel. Our parishes bring hope, peace and salvation to our communities.

Through your support of the one by One campaign our parishes will be able to enhance ministries that lead more people to Christ.

Your support not only ensures the future of our parishes, it enhances Catholic education, broadens social services and living justice programs, and cares for our seminarians.

To learn more, and to make your gift today, contact the parish office, visit the One by One website: one.catholic.foundationgb.org, or call Josh Diedrich toll-free at 877-500-3580, ext. 8197.

Dear & Good People of God,
Welcome to the 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time!

During these weeks of Summer, I have decided to share with you from the Sunday Reflections of someone who I know is a favorite of yours—as he is of mine: Dr. Scott Hahn.

Scriptural Meditation from Dr. Scott Hahn

God wants to dwell with each of us personally, intimately—as the mysterious guests once visited Abraham's tent, as Jesus once entered the home of Mary and Martha.

By his hospitality in this week's First Reading, Abraham shows us how we are to welcome the Lord into our lives. His selfless service of his divine guests (see Hebrews 13:1) stands in contrast to the portrait of Martha drawn in this week's Gospel.

Where Abraham is concerned only for the well-being of his guests, Martha speaks only of herself—"Do you not care that my sister has left me by myself? . . . Tell her to help me." Jesus' gentle rebuke reminds us that we risk missing the divine in the mundane, that we can fall into the trap of believing that God somehow needs to be served by human hands (see Acts 17:25).

Our Lord comes to us not to be served but to serve (see Matthew 20:28). He gave His life that we might know the one thing we need, the "better part," which is life in the fellowship of God.

Jesus is the true Son promised today by Abraham's visitors (see Matthew 1:1). In Him, God has made an everlasting covenant for all time, made us blessed descendants of Abraham (see Genesis 17:19, 21; Romans 4:16–17, 19–21).

The Church now offers us this covenant, bringing to completion the word of God, the promise of His plan of salvation, what Paul calls "the mystery hidden for ages."

As once He came to Abraham, Mary, and Martha, Christ now comes to each of us in Word and Sacrament. As we sing in this week's Psalm: He will make His dwelling with those who keep His Word and practice justice (see also John 14:23).

If we do these things we will not be anxious or disturbed, will not have our Lord taken from us. We will wait on the Lord, who told Abraham and tells each of us: "I will surely return to you."

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK:

In what ways do I think more of myself, and of having things "my way," than I do of serving others?

How can I find time during the day to sit quietly with God in prayer? To sit quietly and read His Word?

Upcoming Events at Ss. Peter & Paul:

July 27th & 28th:

Tickets are $37.99 + tax each (over 50% discount).

Online Purchase Only: www.sixflags.com/greatamerica
Promo Code: CATHOLIC

Are Your Children Registered for the Year?

Our parish is fortunate to be able to offer an excellent Faith Formation/Religious Education program for all of your children in grades 1 through 12.

The price is right: Only $55 for new students, and then $45 for returning students. AND — No student is ever turned away if a family cannot afford the full price.

Every year, we have people who wait until after registration has closed, and then come in—wanting to get their children into classes. This is why we begin registration so early—hoping to accommodate as many as possible. Once registration is closed, it really is closed.

Peace & Good to You & Your Families!

¡Bienvenidos al 16° domingo del tiempo ordinario!

Es Durante estas semanas de verano, he decidido compartir con ustedes las Reflexiones del domingo del renombrado autor católico

Dr. Scott Hahn:

Dios quiere morar con cada uno de nosotros personalmente, íntimamente, tal como los invitados misteriosos visitaron una vez la tienda de Abraham, y cuando Jesús una vez entró a la casa de María y Marta.

Por su hospitalidad en la primera lectura de esta semana, Abraham nos muestra cómo debemos recibir al Señor en nuestras vidas. Su servicio desinteresado de sus invitados divinos contrasta con el retrato de Martha presentado en el Evangelio de esta semana.

Abraham solo se preocupa por el bienestar de sus huéspedes, pero Marta solo habla de sí misma y de sus propias preocupaciones.

La gentil reprensión de Jesús nos recuerda que corremos el riesgo de perder lo divino en lo mundano, que podemos caer en la trampa de creer que, de alguna manera, Dios necesita ser servido por manos humanas.

Nuestro Señor viene a nosotros no para ser servido sino para servir. Él dio su vida para que pudiéramos saber la única cosa que necesitamos, la "mejor parte", que es la vida en la comunión de Dios.

Como una vez que vino a Abraham, a María y a Marta, Cristo ahora viene a cada uno de nosotros en la Palabra y en el Sacramento. Mientras cantamos en el Salmo de esta semana: Él hará su morada con aquellos que guardan Su Palabra y practican la justicia.

Las Preguntas de la Semana:

¿En qué formas pienso más en mí mismo y en tener las cosas "a mi manera" que en servir a los demás?

¿Cómo puedo encontrar tiempo durante el día para sentarme en silencio con Dios en oración? ¿Sentarse en silencio y leer Su Palabra?

~ Paz, bendiciones, y buen verano!
