Educación religiosa - Clases de los miércoles Política de cierre por clima

Si el clima, o cualquier otra situación, dicta que es prudente cancelar las clases de formación de la fe, tomaremos esa decisión lo antes posible en el día.

Luego, enviaremos un mensaje de emergencia, por correo electrónico, a todas las familias de formación de fe para las que tenemos direcciones de correo electrónico registradas, y publicaremos la cancelación como una noticia de alerta aquí en nuestro sitio web parroquial.

También notificaremos a cada uno de los medios de comunicación locales (TV y radio) de nuestra decisión de cancelar las clases.

AVISO: Cancelaremos las clases AUTOMÁTICAMENTE cualquier miércoles en el que se pronostique que la temperatura (CON viento frío) ese día será de -10 (F) o más fría.

St. Vincent De Paul Society

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus says, "Come after (follow) me, and I will make you fishers of men."

Jesus gives us a simple job description to follow:
Repent and believe in the Gospel.

When we take on His work, it may not always be with our friends who join us in Church each Sunday.

We Vincentians believe it means working with people we see everyday on our streets, at the gas station, or at the market.

And when these people cry out for help, that's a great time to show our Gospel beliefs. Come join us in this evangelistic effort or provide us the money we need to continue God's work. Thank you so much.

Thank You & God Bless You!

Dear Parish Family,

Praise be our Lord Jesus Christ!

Thank you so much for your prayers throughout my retreat!

God was so good to me during this time of prayer, and I sincerely thank you for your love and spiritual support.

On a mere human level, the idea of an 8-day silent retreat might seem too much for some of us. It is true that those days in silence are very quiet; but on a spiritual level, those days become an invitation from God to remain with Him under His gaze.

Being under God's gaze -- contemplating the immensity of His love for my brokenness -- is a life-changing experience. I'm grateful to God for His abundant mercy towards me.

In this weekend's readings, we clearly hear about the power of God's gaze. Jesus is walking by the Sea of Galilee, and before He speaks to Simon and Andrew, Jesus sees them.

It was the same thing with James and John. Jesus' gaze must have been so powerful and mysterious that these men ended up leaving everything and began to follow Him. What attracted the disciples to Jesus was His penetrating gaze that must have pierced through their hearts.

Once they experienced the mysterious, loving, and urgent gaze of Jesus, only then they were able to follow after Him.

We are all called by Jesus to come after Him and follow Him. We all have His calling, but not all of us have experienced His powerful and merciful gaze upon us.

Before He called us, He saw us. His eyes are constantly upon us with an urgency to pierce our hearts and souls.

Perhaps Jesus' invitation this week is to spend time in silence before Him. Come and silently gaze at Jesus in the Eucharist before each daily Mass, or in our Eucharistic Adoration chapel, or in our weekly Abide holy hour on Thursdays.

Ask Him for the grace to allow you to experience His powerful gaze upon you and your brokenness.

I pray and hope that we ask Him for this grace every single day of our lives. Receive God's mercy in the silence of prayer.

Silence is the mysterious language God uses to communicate with His loved ones -- with you and me.

Come before the Lord saying nothing but a simple "thank you" for His great love for you, for His presence in your life, and receive what He longs to give you; His life-changing mercy.

In His Most Sacred Heart, Fr. José

Estimada Familia Parroquial,

¡Alabado sea nuestro Señor Jesucristo!

Muchas gracias por sus oraciones durante mi retiro.

Dios fue muy bueno conmigo durante este tiempo de oración y les agradezco sinceramente por su amor y apoyo espiritual.

En un nivel meramente humano, la idea de un retiro de 8 días en silencio puede parecer demasiado para algunos de nosotros. Es cierto que esos días en silencio son muy poco ruidosos pero a nivel espiritual, esos días se convierten en una invitación de Dios a permanecer con Él bajo su mirada.

Estar bajo la mirada de Dios, contemplar la inmensidad de su amor por mi pobreza es una experiencia que cambia vidas. Le agradezco a Dios por su abundante misericordia para conmigo.

En las lecturas de este fin de semana, escuchamos claramente sobre el poder de la mirada de Dios. Jesús camina por el mar de Galilea y antes de llamar a Simón y Andrés, Jesús los ve.

Lo mismo sucedió con Santiago y Juan. La mirada de Jesús debió ser tan poderosa y misteriosa que estos hombres terminaron dejándolo todo, y empezaron a seguirlo. Lo que atrajo a los discípulos a Jesús, fue su mirada penetrante que debió traspasar sus corazones.

Una vez que experimentaron la mirada misteriosa, amorosa y urgente de Jesús, sólo entonces pudieron seguirlo.

Todos somos llamados por Jesús para ir tras Él y seguirlo. Todos tenemos su llamado, pero no todos hemos experimentado su mirada poderosa y misericordiosa sobre nosotros.

Jesús antes de llamarnos, nos vio. Sus ojos están constantemente sobre nosotros con la urgencia de traspasar nuestros corazones y almas.

Quizás, la invitación de Jesús esta semana es pasar tiempo en silencio ante Él.

Ven y mira silenciosamente a Jesús en la Eucaristía antes de la misa diaria, o en nuestra capilla eucarística.

Pídale a Dios la gracia que le permita experimentar su poderosa mirada sobre usted y su pobreza. Suplico a Dios y espero que le imploremos esta gracia todos los días de nuestras vidas.

Recibe la misericordia de Dios en el silencio de la oración. Este lenguaje misterioso, el silencio que Dios usa para comunicarse con sus seres queridos, tú y yo.

Ven ante el Señor, no digas nada, simplemente piensa en Él y en su gran amor por ti y recibe lo que Él anhela darte, su misericordia que cambia la vida.

En Su Sacratísimo Corazón,

P. José
