St. Vincent de Paul Society

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Easter! As the Gospel unfolds, the mystery of the resurrection appears to be a contradiction of feelings. On one hand, the apostles see and believe, and on the other hand there is misunderstanding and confusion.

The Easter mystery of the resurrection defies all human understanding, yet we believe. The challenge for us is to see and believe that our own resurrection comes from the self-sacrifice we make, in imitation of Christ, to bring new life & new hope to others in His Name.

Please continue to support our parish St. Vincent de Paul group, knowing you are a sign of God's love for those who are suffering; You give them Easter hope and joy.

Happy Easter!

Thank You & God Bless You, Paul Novotny

Faith Formation/Religious Education News

Our Wednesday classes have concluded for the 2021-2022 Catechetical Year. Our First Communion students will begin their final prep classes next Sunday, hoping to make their First Communions the Weekend of June 19th!

Coffee Hour Will Resume in the Fall

Beginning with Easter Sunday, we will temporarily suspend our after-Mass Coffee Hour in the Parish Hall. BUT — We Invite You to Gather Together in the area behind the Rectory & on the Playground, weather permitting, for some family “R. & R.” (weather permitting).

We will resume the indoor coffee hours after the summer season.

Help Feed the Seminarians!

Steve and Cindy Parent are hosting a group of about 12 Seminarians — and 2 priests — from St. John Vianney College Seminary in St. Paul, MN, April 22nd-24th, and would like to invite our parish to help by providing them with 2 days of breakfasts, 2 lunches, and 1 dinner.

Any donations to feed our visiting seminarians will be collected this coming Friday, April 22nd, by Cindy Parent, in the church parking lot, after the 8:30 AM Mass.

Thank You!

Dear Parish Family,

Alleluia, The Lord is Risen!
He is Risen indeed! Alleluia!

This is Good News such as has never been heard before! Death is destroyed, life has won the victory. The great King has passed from death to life, and so we must rejoice.

Last night at the Easter Vigil we had 21 people receiving sacraments (one or more of the sacraments of initiation). Those who were baptized experienced what Jesus went through, from death to life. These people, our brothers and sisters, were dead in sin, and God has rescued them and given them new life in the Holy Spirit.

Indeed it was a joyous and marvelous night. For Christ has illuminated their hearts and the Church with His life. May we continue to pray for them and one another, that this great news may truly change our way of life.

After all our sacrifices and offerings during the penitential season, I pray that we too may experience this new life of Christ in our hearts!

It is the time to rejoice and feast because the victory is also ours.

In His great generosity God shares the victory and the fruits of His sacrifice with us!

The beauty of God, in His infinite love has exploded our darkness.

If we have walked with Him in his sorrowful journey, we will be able to rejoice greatly.

Enjoy this time of His abundant life and hope! We are not forgotten by the all powerful and almighty God.

Indeed, the victorious King has won the battle and so have we by virtue of His love for us.

Go in peace, Alleluia, Alleluia!
Thanks be to God, Alleluia, Alleluia!

*In His Most Sacred Heart,
Fr. José*

Estimada Familia Parroquial,

¡Aleluya!
¡El Señor ha resucitado!
¡En verdad resucitó! ¡Aleluya!

¡Nunca antes se habían escuchado tan buenas noticias!

La muerte fue destruida, la vida ha obtenido la victoria. El gran Rey ha pasado de la muerte a la vida y por eso debemos alegrarnos.

Anoche en la Vigilia Pascual tuvimos 21 personas recibiendo sacramentos, los que fueron bautizados vivieron lo que pasó Jesús, de la muerte a la vida.

Estas personas, nuestros hermanos, estaban muertos en el pecado y Dios los ha rescatado y les ha dado una nueva vida en el Espíritu Santo.

De verdad fue una noche alegre y maravillosa; porque Cristo ha iluminado sus corazones y la Iglesia con su luz y su vida. Sigamos orando por ellos y unos por otros, para que esta gran noticia cambie verdaderamente nuestra forma de vivir.

¡Después de todos nuestros sacrificios y ofrendas durante el tiempo de penitencia, pido a Dios para que nosotros también podamos experimentar esta nueva vida de Cristo en nuestros corazones!

Es tiempo de alegría y fiesta, porque la victoria también es nuestra.

¡En Su gran generosidad, Dios comparte la victoria y los frutos de Su sacrificio con nosotros!

La belleza de Dios en su amor infinito ha explotado nuestra oscuridad con su luz.

Si hemos caminado con Él en su doloroso camino podremos regocijarnos grandemente. Disfrutemos este tiempo de Su vida abundante y esperanza porque el Dios todopoderoso no nos olvido.

De hecho, el Rey victorioso ha ganado la batalla y nosotros también en virtud de Su inmenso amor .

¡Vayamos en paz, Aleluya, Aleluya!
¡Demos gracias a Dios, Aleluya, Aleluya!

En Su Sacratísimo Corazón, P. José
