St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today, we are called to repent and experience divine mercy.

As we move into the 5th week of Lent, we are hopefully still practicing some sort of self-denial so that God may take fuller possession of our hearts.

As tax refunds quickly run out for many families in need, our Ss. Peter & Paul Conference is experiencing more calls for assistance, especially with increased monthly rental charges and gasoline prices.

Please consider a cash donation to SVdP. Place the donation in your March special offertory envelope, or a plain envelope marked SVdP, and put it in the Sunday collection basket.

We will make sure your money is used to help a neighborhood family in need; every penny of it.

Thank You & God Bless You, Paul Novotny

They're Back!

After a two-year break, a group of about 12 Seminarians — and 2 priests — from St. John Vianney College Seminary in St. Paul, MN will be coming to visit the Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help, our beautiful Cathedral, and finally Green Bay's "second shrine", Lambeau Field!

Steve and Cindy Parent are hosting them April 22nd-24th, and would like to invite our parish to help by providing them with 2 days of breakfasts, 2 lunches, and 1 dinner.

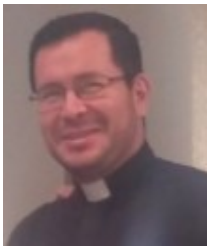
Items such as breakfast egg bakes, fruit, juice, milk, salads, veggie trays, brats, danish, cookies, or monetary donations would all be appreciated.

A sign-up sheet is on the table in the elevator entrance of church. Food may be delivered to SsPP Friday, April 22nd, after the 8:30am Mass; or to make other arrangements please contact Cindy or call the parish office.

Please keep all our seminarians in prayer.

There are men answering the Call!

God Bless You and Thank You!



Dear Parish Family,

This This weekend there will be a little change in the readings; we'll be using the option for the catechumens.

For the last three weeks we had the option to select the readings we hear at holy Mass. This weekend we have Jesus weeping over the death of His friend Lazarus, which allows us to ponder the fact that God is able to use our own sinfulness for His greater glory.

In the first reading, through the prophet Ezekiel, God promises that He will open up graves of His loved ones and make them rise from the dead. God promises the power of His Holy Spirit to be poured upon them so that they may live!

Jesus fulfills that promise in a very powerful way as He raises Lazarus from the dead. The grave is opened, and Jesus displays His divine power over the death of humanity. People were amazed and marveled at such great power and the impressive scene they witnessed – death obeys and surrenders the command of the Lord!

The image of Lazarus being raised from the dead is the image of what will happen to us at the end of our lives. But it is more than that; our death is also the image of sin over us, and how, if we allow God to help us, we too are able to rise from spiritual death.

Confession, the sacrament of reconciliation, is where Jesus raises us to life after we have fallen into sin that leads us to death. Every time we come before the Lord and surrender our sins, He raises us from death in a real and powerful way! Every time we fall into sin, our Lord also weeps at seeing our decay, but He remains hopeful and faithful to His promise that He will pour out His Holy Spirit upon us, that we may live!

This Lenten season is all about letting the Spirit of God and His power be poured upon us as we surrender our poverty and sinfulness at the feet of Jesus. He remains ever faithful and ready to raise us up.

His tears continue to pour every time we fall, but as long as we live, God has hope that we will repent and let Him lift us up from the power of death!

We still have time to repent and believe in the Gospel!

Save the date–June 26th we will be celebrating our pastoral feast. Please come and join us in celebrating with a mini-picnic as we celebrate the feast of Ss. Peter & Paul! It will be focused on community building; an opportunity to grow in friendship and become stronger as a community with the help of God.

In His Most Sacred Heart, Fr. José

Do You Know Someone Who is Homebound

Please contact the parish office 920 4357548.

Welcome Seminarian Juan Altamirano

Juan Altamirano, one of our diocesan Seminarians, who attends St. Francis de Sales Seminary, will be staying with us for Holy Week; Palm Sunday through Easter Sunday.

You will no doubt see him as he participates in the liturgies along with Fr. José, Deacon Bob, and our Knights of the Altar.

Be sure to say hello, introduce yourself — AND pray for his vocation!

Estimada Familia Parroquial,

Este fin de semana estamos haciendo un pequeño cambio para las lecturas que escucharemos este fin de semana. Usaremos la opción para los catecúmenos. Durante las últimas tres semanas tuvimos la opción de seleccionar entre dos opciones. Este fin de semana tenemos a Jesús llorando por la muerte de su amigo Lázaro. Lo que nos permite reflexionar sobre el hecho de que Dios puede usar nuestra propia pecaminosidad para demostrar Su gloria.

En la primera lectura del profeta Ezequiel, Dios prometió que abriría los sepulcros de sus seres queridos y los haría levantar de ellos. ¡Dios prometió que el poder de Su Espíritu Santo se derramaría sobre ellos para que pudieran vivir! Jesús cumple esa promesa de una manera muy poderosa al resucitar a Lázaro. La tumba está abierta y Jesús muestra su poder divino sobre la muerte. ¡La gente estaba asombrada y maravillada por su gran poder! Es una escena impresionante ¡La muerte obedece y se rinde al mandato del Señor!

La imagen de Lázaro resucitando de entre los muertos, es la imagen de lo que nos sucederá al final de nuestra vida. Pero esa es también la imagen del pecado sobre nosotros y si permitimos que Dios nos ayude, también podemos resucitar espiritualmente de entre los muertos. La confesión, el sacramento de la reconciliación; es donde Jesús nos resucita a la vida después de haber caído en el pecado que nos lleva a la muerte.

¡Cada vez que venimos ante el Señor y entregamos nuestros pecados, Él de una manera poderosa nos resucita de la muerte! ¡Cada vez que caemos en el pecado, nuestro Señor también llora al ver nuestra propia decadencia, pero permanece esperanzado y fiel a Su promesa de que derramará Su Espíritu Santo sobre nosotros para que podamos vivir!

Este tiempo de Cuaresma, se trata de dejar que el Espíritu de Dios y Su poder se derramen sobre nosotros mientras entregamos nuestra pobreza y pecados a los pies de Jesús en la confesión. Él permanece siempre fiel y dispuesto a resucitarnos.

¡Sus lágrimas continúan derramándose cada vez que caemos, pero mientras vivamos, Dios tiene la esperanza de que nos arrepentiremos y dejaremos que Él nos levante del poder de la muerte!

¡Todavía tenemos tiempo para arrepentirnos y creer en el Evangelio!

PD

Aparta la fecha, el 26 de junio estaremos celebrando nuestra fiesta pastoral. Venga y únase a nosotros para celebrar con un mini picnic mientras celebramos la fiesta de San Pedro y San Pablo! Estará enfocada en el crecimiento de la comunidad, una oportunidad para crecer en amistad y fortalecernos como comunidad con la ayuda de Dios.

En Su Sacratísimo Corazón,

P. José
