St. Vincent de Paul Society

"It is the Lord!" John and Peter, after fishing all night on Lake Tiberias without a catch, suddenly get help from the Risen Lord. Soon the nets are full of fish, ready to cook up for breakfast.

God provides us with what we need. He provides us with talent to speak to others about Him and about His goodness and love for us.

Come and join our group of Vincentians to help our parish neighbors in need. We will not ask you to do big things. We will ask you only to do little things well and reflect on the life of Jesus with us.

Call 920-437-8865 for more details. And when you begin your vocation of doing good things for others, we hope you will say, "It is the Lord!"

Thank You & God Bless You, Paul Novotny

Dear Parish Family,

The Lord is Risen!
He is Risen indeed!

What a great joy to celebrate the victory of life over death, the freedom that God has won for us!

This It is so beautiful to see how Jesus, after His resurrection, comes back and pursues His disciples.

Today we witness how Jesus heals His beloved friend, Peter, after his betrayal of his Master. Peter wept bitterly right after the three denials, and he carries that remorse with him.

Today Jesus shows us that indeed He is risen and realizes that we still need to be healed and transformed.

He comes in pursuit of us and desires to transform us just like He healed and transformed Peter. Right after the healing, Peter is able to receive the Father's mercy and was able to go forth proclaiming with power the resurrection of our Lord.

He was so convinced, because he experienced the Lord's powerful healing.

Peter's example is what God desires for us!

He also wants to heal us, and convince us of the reality of His love. We too have celebrated and know that He is risen. We also have wounds to hand over to our Lord, just like Peter did.

The Lord knows that we are hurting and wants to pull us aside as well. He desires to ask us if we truly love Him.

The love of God will heal us if we let it enter deep into our souls. He desires to heal us more than we desire it for ourselves.

That's how incredible the love of God is for us. That powerful love has truly risen and is in pursuit of our souls.

May we let it enter deep into our hearts.

Estimada Familia Parroquial,

¡El Señor ha Resucitado, ¡Ciertamente Resucitó!

¡Qué alegría tan grande celebrar la victoria de la vida sobre la muerte, la libertad que Dios nos ha conquistado!

Es tan hermoso ver como Jesucristo después de su resurrección regresa y persigue a sus discípulos. Hoy somos testigos de cómo Jesús sana a su amado amigo Pedro.

Después de la traición y de cómo Pedro lloró amargamente justo después de las tres negaciones.

Hoy Jesús nos muestra que efectivamente ha resucitado y se da cuenta de que aún necesitamos ser sanados y transformados por el.

Viene a nuestra búsqueda y desea transformarnos al igual que sanó y transformó a Pedro.

Inmediatamente después de la sanación, Pedro pudo recibir la misericordia del Padre y pudo salir a proclamar con poder la resurrección de nuestro Señor. Estaba tan convencido porque experimentó la poderosa sanación del Señor.

¡El ejemplo de Pedro es lo que Dios desea para nosotros! Él también quiere sanarnos, convencernos de la realidad de su amor.

Nosotros también hemos celebrado y sabemos que Él resucitó. Y también tenemos heridas que entregar a nuestro Señor, tal como lo hizo Pedro. El Señor sabe que estamos sufriendo y quiere apartarnos también.

Él desea preguntarnos si realmente lo amamos. El amor de Dios nos sanará si lo dejamos entrar profundamente en nuestras almas.

Él desea sanarnos más de lo que nosotros lo deseamos por nuestra cuenta. Así de increíble es el amor de Dios por nosotros.

Ese amor poderoso que verdaderamente se ha levantado está en pos de nuestras almas. Que la dejemos entrar en lo profundo de nuestro corazón.

En Su Sacratísimo Corazón,

P. José
