Today we celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday. We see Jesus portrayed as a Shepherd—with all the rest of us portrayed as sheep. The Shepherd protects us, the Shepherd searches for us when we are lost, the Shepherd speaks to us in a voice we can hear, and He knows our name.

May the Lord give us the grace to listen to the Good Shepherd as we seek to know the Will of God.

For those who are lonely and overwhelmed, may we bring them the Good Shepherd's friendship.

For those who are poor and destitute, may we bring them the Good Shepherd's protection.

For those who are sick and dying, may we bring them the Good Shepherd's healing love. Amen.

Thank You & God Bless You, Paul Novotny

Dear Parish Family,
Bishop Ricken has asked us to focus heavily this weekend on vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

Our Lord, the Good Shepherd, will provide the vocations that we need for His Church. It is a fact that our Diocese is currently categorized as “unhealthy” when it comes to producing vocations to the priesthood. Given the number of parishes and Catholics in our Diocese, we should have more priests and we should be ordaining more per year. This year – and in the next two years, God-willing, we’ll be ordaining one priest per year. As you can imagine, this is not nearly enough to provide for the number of Catholics in our diocese.

So, what’s happening? Why are we doing so badly when it comes to producing vocations? There are many different factors as to why we are in the drought that we are in. There is not a single answer to this problem, but the only solution is prayer; a deep prayer that comes from the heart asking the Good Shepherd, our Lord Jesus Christ, to bless us with an abundance of holy vocations from within our families and children.

We have to realize that there are not enough priests for our diocese and we, as priests, have to assume our own responsibility as well. We haven’t been the spiritual fathers that our families need to encourage them in their spiritual journeys.

There is tremendous room for growth in our diocese and, as a matter of fact, there are plenty of signs of hope for a better future. The more that we focus on God — and the worship of God — at every Mass, the more the Holy Spirit will bless us with holy vocations.

Divine worship in the Mass was never meant to be a focus on humanity or for the sake of entertaining those in attendance.

Divine worship has to be focused on us coming together in our need to worship the One, True, God who blesses His people by coming down from heaven to help us and feed us with His precious Body and Blood. Every Mass is meant to be an encounter with the Lord, and we must celebrate each Mass with the reverence and great dignity that it deserves.

The more we approach the Lord with our whole hearts, prepared to worship Him and bring our needs, our efforts, our sacrifices within the week, the more that the Lord will grant us our petition for more priests. There is a great need for priests and religious (brothers, sisters, nuns, monks, etc.), so the opportunity before us is a blessing to draw closer to God, and to stay focused on our Good Shepherd who will keep us in His hands. No one will be able to take us away from Him. Jesus said it and He will fulfill His promise.

Oh Good Shepherd, grant us more holy priests and religious from our parish and diocese!

In His Most Sacred Heart,
Fr. José

From Fr. José and All of Your Parish Staff!

Estimada Familia Parroquial,

El obispo Ricken nos ha pedido que este fin de semana nos enfoquemos en las vocaciones al sacerdocio y la vida religiosa. Nuestro Señor, el Buen Pastor, proveerá las vocaciones que necesitamos para Su Iglesia. Es un hecho que nuestra Diócesis actualmente está categorizada como “enferma” cuando se trata de producir vocaciones al sacerdocio. Dada la cantidad de parroquias y católicos en nuestra Diócesis, deberíamos tener más sacerdotes y deberíamos ordenar más por año. Este año y los próximos dos, si Dios quiere, estaremos ordenando un sacerdote por año. Como se puede imaginar, no es suficiente para cubrir el número de católicos en nuestra diócesis.

¿Entonces qué está pasando? ¿Por qué nos va tan mal a la hora de producir vocaciones? Hay muchos factores diferentes de por qué estamos en la sequía en la que estamos. No hay una sola respuesta a este problema, pero la única solución es la oración. Una oración profunda que sale del corazón pidiendo al Buen Pastor, nuestro Señor Jesucristo que nos bendiga con abundancia de vocaciones santas desde nuestras familias. Tenemos que darnos cuenta de que no hay suficientes sacerdotes para nuestra diócesis y nosotros, como sacerdotes, también tenemos que asumir nuestra propia responsabilidad. No hemos sido los padres espirituales que nuestras familias necesitan para alentarlos en sus caminos espirituales.

Hay un tremendo espacio para seguir creciendo en nuestra diócesis y, de hecho, hay muchas señales de esperanza para un futuro mejor. Cuanto más nos enfoquemos en Dios y en la adoración de Dios en cada Misa, más nos bendecirá el Espíritu Santo con vocaciones santas. La adoración divina, la Misa nunca fue creada para ser un foco en la humanidad o para entretener a los asistentes. La adoración divina tiene que estar enfocada en nosotros, uniéndonos en la necesidad de adorar al Dios Único y Verdadero que bendice a Su pueblo al descender del cielo para ayudarnos y alimentarnos con su cuerpo precioso. Cada Misa está destinada a ser un encuentro con el Señor y debemos celebrar cada Misa con la reverencia y la gran dignidad que se merece. Cuanto más nos acerquemos al Señor con todo nuestro corazón, preparados para adorarlo y traer nuestras necesidades, nuestros esfuerzos, nuestros sacrificios dentro de la semana, más nos concederá el Señor nuestra petición de más sacerdotes. Hay una gran necesidad de sacerdotes y religiosos, por lo que la oportunidad que tenemos ante nosotros es una bendición para acercarnos a Dios, para mantenernos enfocados en nuestro Buen Pastor, quien nos tendrá en sus manos y nadie podrá alejarnos de Él. Jesús lo dijo y Él cumplirá Su promesa.

En Su Sacratísimo Corazón,

P. José
