5th Easter Sunday

In the Gospel today, Jesus say "...whoever believes in me, will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these". Helping a person in need is one of those works that Jesus did so often in His public life. So many of you followed the teachings of Jesus by giving generosity to our recent St. Vincent Lenten fund drive. Thanks to you, we collected almost $2,000. This money will allow us to continue our work of helping others in need. Please continue to do the work that Jesus asked us to do. You are taking your belief in the resurrection and hearing the good news of salvation and are demonstrating a need to treat others with justice, mercy, forgiveness and love. Thank you for helping us spread the good news of the Lord, and please continue to pray that others will step forward to join us in support of this effort.

Thank You for Helping our Seminarians!!

A big "Thank You" to our generous parishioners for donations for our visiting seminarians from St. John Vianney College Seminary in St. Paul, MN. They definitely felt the warmth and generous spirit of Northeast Wisconsin and left knowing so many people are praying for them as they discern their vocation. The men thoroughly enjoyed their time at the National Shrine of Our Lady of Champion, our Cathedral, and the Kairos house with our vocations team and first year seminarians from our diocese. All bellies were full and we even had a few leftovers to send back to the seminary for study breaks.

Another "Thank You" goes to our parish staff who collected donations, received phone calls, and cleaned endlessly to welcome our visitors. They all made organizing this event so easy.

Your support was very much appreciated. Please keep these young men and all our seminarians in your prayers. They are the future of our church.

God Bless You!!

Dear Parish Family,

It was so much joy to be back with you last weekend, as I prayed the Saturday 4pm Vigil Mass and the Noon Mass on Sunday. I can't thank you enough for all of your love, prayers, and support that you've been sending my way. The plan for this weekend is for me to come back and pray all the Masses with you. I'll be using a little scooter to get around the sanctuary, please forgive any seeming lack of reverence as I move around on the scooter - none is intended, I assure you.

In this Sunday's Gospel, we hear Philip asking Jesus to show them the Father. Our Lord goes on to speak about His intimate union with the Father. The Father is in Jesus, and through Him the Father does His work. In that intimate union, the Father is doing the work of our redemption. The Father comes to seek His beloved children so that He can lead us out of the darkness into His marvelous light (1 Pet 2:9). Jesus was always letting the Father do His work within Him. In total obedience and with an intimate union with His Father, Jesus came to save us.

We know that the Holy Spirit dwells within us from the moment of our Baptism. The love of the Father dwells within us as well and we are called to let Him do His work within us, just like Jesus did. The presence of the Father within us is a reality as is the search of the Father for you, His beloved child. As God's beloved children, we are called to live in that intimate union with Him. We become intimately united with the Father when we pray in the silence of our hearts, in adoration, and at every Mass as we worship Him. Anytime we think about God and bring our needs and petitions to the Father, we remain close to the Father. This intimate union with the Father will lead us to a satisfaction and fulfillment in our lives that is beyond this world. The more we know God, the more we know ourselves and the easier it is to recognize His presence within us.

Every time Jesus' disciples saw Him, they saw the Father. When people see you and me, whom do they see? The Father or just ourselves? God dwells within us, let us give Him free reign in our lives. People who have met saints like Mother Theresa of Calcutta or St. John Paul II, always talk about how their interactions with these saints were different. The peace or the joy that they radiated was impressive. People saw their works and they praised God for that beautiful witness. When people see us, or speak to us or see our actions, what would they say? Whom do they encounter? A prideful sinner who doesn't let God help him, or a humble sinner fully surrendered at the feet of Jesus? Jesus decided to be obedient and in an intimate union with His Father. The saints decided to love Jesus and surrender to Him, and they did marvelous deeds. What would you choose? Will you choose to surrender at the feet of Jesus, always in a life of obedience and intimately united to Him? You and I must make a decision, God or you?

In His Most Sacred Heart,

Fr. José

Mother's Day, Sunday May 14th, there will be a May Crowning and procession at the end of the 9:30 am Mass in Honor of

Our Blessed Mother

KIDS Corner

Estimada Familia Parroquial,

Fue una gran alegría estar de vuelta con ustedes el fin de semana pasado, mientras rezaba la Misa de Vigilia del sábado a las 4 y la Misa del mediodía el domingo. No puedo agradecerles lo suficiente por todo su amor, oraciones y apoyo que me han estado enviando. El plan para este fin de semana es que yo regrese y rece todas las Misas con ustedes. Usaré un pequeño scooter para moverme por el santuario, perdone cualquier aparente falta de reverencia mientras me muevo en el scooter; no es intencionado, se lo aseguro.

En el Evangelio de este domingo, escuchamos a Felipe pedirle a Jesús que les muestre al Padre. Nuestro Señor continúa hablando de Su unión íntima con el Padre. El Padre está en Jesús, ya través de Él el Padre hace Su obra. En esa unión íntima, el Padre está haciendo la obra de nuestra redención. El Padre viene a buscar a sus amados hijos para que pueda sacarnos de las tinieblas a su luz admirable (1 P 2, 9). Jesús siempre estaba dejando que el Padre hiciera Su obra dentro de Él. En total obediencia y en íntima unión con su Padre, Jesús vino a salvarnos.

Sabemos que el Espíritu Santo habita en nosotros desde el momento de nuestro Bautismo. El amor del Padre también habita dentro de nosotros y estamos llamados a dejar que Él haga Su obra dentro de nosotros, tal como lo hizo Jesús. La presencia del Padre en nosotros es una realidad como lo es la búsqueda del Padre por ti, su hijo amado. Como hijos amados de Dios, estamos llamados a vivir en esa unión íntima con Él. Nos unimos íntimamente con el Padre cuando oramos en el silencio de nuestro corazón, en adoración y en cada Misa mientras lo adoramos. Cada vez que pensamos en Dios y llevamos nuestras necesidades y peticiones al Padre, permanecemos cerca del Padre. Esta unión íntima con el Padre nos llevará a una satisfacción y plenitud en nuestra vida que va más allá de este mundo. Cuanto más conocemos a Dios, más nos conocemos a nosotros mismos y más fácil es reconocer Su presencia dentro de nosotros.

Cada vez que los discípulos de Jesús lo veían, veían al Padre. Cuando la gente nos ve a ti y a mí, ¿a quién ven? ¿Al Padre o simplemente a nosotros mismos? Dios habita dentro de nosotros, démosle reinado suelta en nuestras vidas. Las personas que han conocido a santos como la Madre Teresa de Calcuta o San Juan Pablo II, siempre hablan de cómo sus interacciones con estos santos fueron diferentes. La paz o la alegría que irradiaban era impresionante. La gente veía sus obras y alababan a Dios por ese hermoso testimonio. Cuando las personas nos ven, o nos hablan o ven nuestras acciones, ¿qué dirían? ¿Con quién se encuentran? ¿Un pecador orgulloso que no se deja ayudar por Dios, o un pecador humilde totalmente rendido a los pies de Jesús? Jesús decidió ser obediente y permanecer en íntima unión con su Padre. Los santos decidieron amar a Jesús y entregarse a Él, e hicieron obras maravillosas. ¿y tu que eliges? ¿Elegirás entregarte a los pies de Jesús, siempre en una vida de obediencia e íntimamente unida a Él? Tú y yo debemos tomar una decisión, ¿Dios o tú?

En Su Sacratísimo Corazón,

Padre José

¡Gracias por ayudar a nuestros seminaristas!

Un gran "Gracias" a nuestros generosos feligreses por las donaciones para nuestros seminaristas visitantes del Seminario St. John Vianney College en St. Paul, MN. Definitivamente sintieron la calidez y el espíritu generoso del noreste de Wisconsin y se fueron sabiendo que muchas personas están orando por ellos mientras disciernen su vocación. Los hombres disfrutaron mucho de su tiempo en el Santuario Nacional de Nuestra Señora de Champion, nuestra Catedral y la casa Kairos con nuestro equipo de vocaciones y seminaristas de primer año de nuestra diócesis. Todos los estómagos estaban llenos e incluso teníamos algunas sobras para enviar al seminario para los descansos de estudio. Otro "Gracias" va a nuestro personal parroquial que recolectó donaciones, recibió llamadas telefónicas y limpió sin cesar para dar la bienvenida a nuestros visitantes. Todos ellos hicieron que organizar este evento fuera tan fácil. Su apoyo fue muy apreciado. Por favor, mantengan a estos jóvenes y a todos nuestros seminaristas en sus oraciones. Ellos son el futuro de nuestra iglesia.

Dios les bendiga!! Cindy and Steve Parent
