Pentecost Sunday

In our Gospel of Pentecost today, Jesus says, "Peace be with you." What an incredible gift Jesus gives us, the joy of peace on earth. With this peace, we can feel joy in our hearts as we try to survive each day in this troubled world. When you donated food today, did you feel the joy? I did. Did you feel the joy of the person taking this food back their family? I did. Thank you so much for thinking about your friends in need. Today we have become real participants in God's plan of salvation. Pentecost has made us temples of the Holy Spirit, and your action today made our world a better place to live. Spirit of God, continue to show us the way. "Peace be with you!"

Dear Parish Family,

Come, O Holy Spirit, Come!
Blessed Pentecost Sunday to us all. What happened that day to all the apostles and disciples? They went from fear and cowardness, to being bold and courageous. The sound of the strong wind, the tongues of fire, and all the disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:1-11). What a marvelous sight that must have been! No wonder the Church spread like wildfire throughout the region – despite the persecutions. Even when being a Christian was illegal in the eyes of the Roman empire, these courageous disciples lived the Faith and were willing to proclaim the Gospel –embracing their own deaths if they had to.

This outpouring of the Holy Spirit was real and transformative in the first century – and it is still so today in our world. The Holy Spirit is real and powerful. We too can be like the early Christians filled with fear and discouraged at times. But we can also be transformed as they were. The power of the Holy Spirit doesn't extinguish. God wants to continue to show His mighty power to the whole world. God desires His Church to grow and expand like it did in the first centuries. The problem lies with us. We don't believe or trust enough in the power of God. Very often we limit His power and don't let it act in our lives. The Father desires to destroy our fear and limitations, and our lukewarmness and unbelief. Let us ask and beg the Holy Spirit to come and act. May we beg our Lord to ignite the fire of His love within us so that we too may be burning with zeal and passion for God and His Church. Countless numbers of courageous Christians gave up their lives for Christ and His Church. You and I should also be burning with that same fire.

We are blessed to have 20 young souls being confirmed by our bishop this weekend. We pray that they may truly become soldiers for Christ and His Church. We've been praying a novena to the Holy Spirit for them and our community – that we may be zealous and passionate as were the first Christians. The Father truly desires to unleash the power of the Holy Spirit on us, please, let us pray that we may be able to receive it and let it act in our lives. Please keep our youth and our parish in your prayers. Come, please come, O Holy Spirit!

In Jesus' Sacred Heart,

Fr. José

Luke 1:42

Estimada Familia Parroquial,

¡Ven, Espíritu Santo, ven! Bendecido Domingo de Pentecostés para todos nosotros. ¿Qué pasó ese día con todos los apóstoles y discípulos? Pasaron del miedo y la cobardía a ser audaces y valientes. El sonido del fuerte viento, las lenguas de fuego y todos los discípulos estaban llenos del Espíritu Santo (Hch 2-1-11). ¡Qué vista tan maravillosa debe haber sido! No es de extrañarse que la Iglesia se extendiera como la pólvora por toda la región a pesar de las persecuciones. Incluso cuando ser cristiano era ilegal a los ojos del imperio romano, estos valientes discípulos vivieron su fe y estuvieron dispuestos a proclamar el Evangelio y aceptaron su propia muerte si era necesario.

Este derramamiento del Espíritu Santo fue tan real y transformador en el primer siglo como lo es hoy en nuestro mundo. El Espíritu Santo es real y poderoso. Nosotros también podemos ser como los primeros cristianos llenos de miedo y desalentados a veces. Pero también podemos ser transformados como ellos. El poder del Espíritu Santo no se extingue. Dios quiere seguir mostrando su gran poder a todo el mundo. Dios desea que Su Iglesia crezca y se expanda como lo hizo en los primeros siglos. El problema depende de nosotros. No creemos ni confiamos lo suficiente en el poder de Dios. Muy a menudo limitamos su poder y no lo dejamos actuar en nuestras propias vidas. El Padre desea destruir nuestro miedo y nuestras limitaciones, nuestra tibieza e incredulidad. Pidamos y roguemos al Espíritu Santo que venga y actúe. Roguemos a nuestro Señor que encienda el fuego de su amor dentro de nosotros para que también nosotros estemos ardiendo en celo y pasión por Dios y su Iglesia. Un número incontable de valientes cristianos dieron sus vidas por Cristo y su Iglesia. Tú y yo también podríamos estar ardiendo con ese mismo fuego.

Tenemos la bendición de que nuestro obispo confirme a 20 almas jóvenes este fin de semana. Oramos para que puedan convertirse verdaderamente en soldados de Cristo y Su Iglesia. Hemos estado rezando una novena al Espíritu Santo por ellos y nuestra comunidad para que podamos ser celosos y apasionados como lo fueron los primeros cristianos. El Padre verdaderamente desea desatar el poder del Espíritu Santo sobre nosotros, por favor, oremos para que podamos recibirlo y dejarlo actuar en nuestras vidas. Por favor mantenga a nuestra juventud y nuestra parroquia en sus oraciones. ¡Ven, por favor, ven Espíritu Santo!

En el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús,
Padre José
