Thank You for Feeding our Seminarians!!

A big "Thank You" to our generous parishioners for donations for our visiting seminarians from St. John Vianney College Seminary in St. Paul, MN. They felt the warmth and generous spirit of our parish and left knowing so many people are praying for them as they discern their vocation. The men thoroughly enjoyed their time at the National Shrine of Our Lady of Champion, our Cathedral, and Lambeau Field. All were well-fed, and we even had a few leftovers to send back to the seminary for study breaks.

Another "Thank You" goes to our parish staff who collected donations, received phone calls, and cleaned endlessly to welcome our visitors. They all made organizing this event so easy.

Your support was very much appreciated. Please keep these young men and all our seminarians in your prayers. They are the future of our church. God Bless You!!

4th Sunday of Easter

Today, we celebrate "Good Shepherd Sunday", and we reflect on how Jesus loves us and cares for us. Jesus tells us that shepherding is serious business. The shepherd may even have to lay down his/her life to protect the sheep, kind of like Jesus did for us. But what is OUR job as shepherds in this world we live in. We are called to protect those less fortunate around us. We cannot look away. We need to commit ourselves to do good deeds each day. We need to care for the sick, feed the hungry, cloth the poor, forgive those who do us wrong and love each other as God loves us. We are the good shepherd for those around us; our family, our friends and our neighbors. Let us take part in the joys, the sorrows, the worries and the hopes of these people. Remember we are all poor in one way or another. Let us hope that reason brings us closer to each other, and closer to God.

Dear Parish Family,
 Praised be Jesus Christ, Our Good and Faithful Shepherd!

"A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep" (Jn 10: 11-8), Jesus says in today's Gospel. A good shepherd is not a coward who runs away in the midst of fear. Jesus is reminding us that as the Good Shepherd, He faced the devil and his kingdom of darkness for our sake. In the midst of the trial, His bitter passion, He didn't shy away from it but literally laid down His life for our sake.

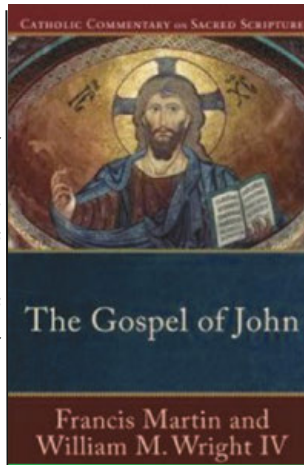

The tremendous joy of Easter is only possible because He laid down His life for us. Indeed we have a courageous Shepherd who doesn't shy away from the struggle and is not afraid of suffering for our sake. Just like He laid down His life for our sake, He is present now in every trial of our life, in every difficulty and problem. He doesn't run away from us, but quite the contrary, He longs to be present, to help, to strengthen and carry us when we need Him. No problem or challenge will prevent Him from being present in our lives. This is the reality that we must ponder this week.

We have a tremendous Shepherd who doesn't abandon or fail us. A gracious God who carries His children when we are weak. May we pray to let the Father carry us, hold us, protect us, and provide for us in our need. Turn to Jesus, the Good Shepherd who is here for you.

In His Most Sacred Heart,

Fr. Jose

P.S. Thank you for your generosity to our parish and the Bishop's Appeal. We've made our goal earlier than usual, and it was made possible through your generous hearts. I'm deeply grateful for your generosity and also for our Bishop's support. He has behaved like a true spiritual father towards me. He has been very supportive, and willing to walk with me and our parish. The formation I received earlier in the year, for those 10 weeks, was all paid by the Bishop's appeal from previous years. Thank you, because it wouldn't have been possible without your support. May God reward your tremendous generosity!

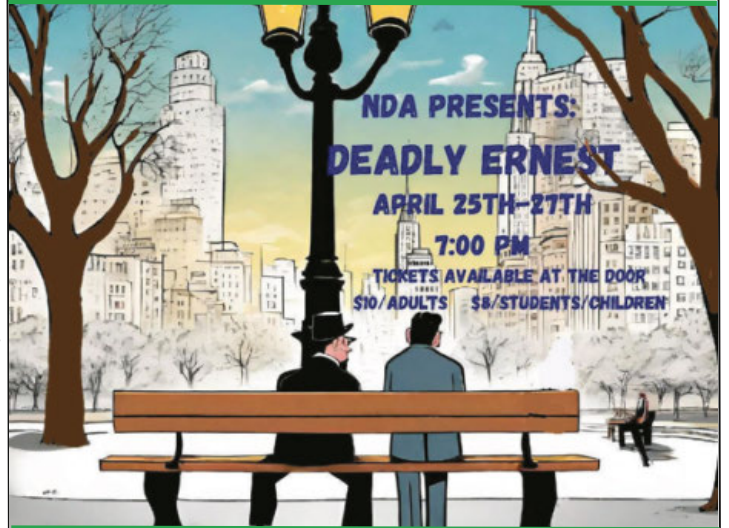

Join Den Chuck & Eileen for Bible Study using the Catholic Commentary on Sacred Scripture: The Gospel of John which is easy-to-understand, yet deeply profound!

Estimada Familia Parroquial,

¡Alabado sea Jesucristo, Nuestro Buen y Fiel Pastor!

“El buen pastor da su vida por las ovejas” (Jn 10, 11-8), dice Jesús en el evangelio de hoy. Un buen pastor no es un cobarde que huye en el miedo. Jesús nos recuerda que, como Buen Pastor, se enfrentó al diablo y su reino de tinieblas por nuestro bien. En medio de la prueba, de Su amarga pasión, Él no la rehuyó, sino que literalmente entregó Su vida por nosotros.

El tremendo gozo de la Pascua sólo es posible porque Él entregó su vida por nosotros. De hecho, tenemos un Pastor valiente que no rehuye la lucha y no teme sufrir por nosotros. Así como Él entregó Su vida por nosotros, Él está presente ahora en cada prueba de nuestra vida, en cada dificultad y problema. Él no huye de nosotros, sino todo lo contrario, anhela estar presente, ayudarnos, fortalecernos y llevarnos cuando lo necesitamos. Ningún problema o desafío impedirá que Él esté presente en nuestras vidas. Ésta es la realidad sobre la que debemos reflexionar esta semana.

Tenemos un Pastor tremendo que no nos abandona ni nos falla. Un Dios misericordioso que carga a sus hijos cuando somos débiles. Oremos para permitir que el Padre nos lleve, nos sostenga, nos proteja y nos provea en nuestra necesidad. Acude a Jesús, el Buen Pastor que está aquí para ti.

En Su Sacratísimo Corazón,
P. José

PD Gracias por su generosidad hacia nuestra parroquia y la colecta del Obispo. Logramos nuestro objetivo antes de lo habitual y fue posible gracias a su generosidad. Estoy profundamente agradecido por su generosidad y también por el apoyo de nuestro Obispo. Se ha comportado conmigo como un verdadero padre espiritual. Él ha sido un gran apoyo y está dispuesto a caminar conmigo y con nuestra parroquia. La formación que recibí a principios de año, durante esas 10 semanas, fue pagada en su totalidad con la colecta del Obispo de años anteriores. Gracias, porque no hubiera sido posible sin su apoyo. ¡Que Dios recompense su tremenda generosidad!
