18th Sunday of Ordinary Times

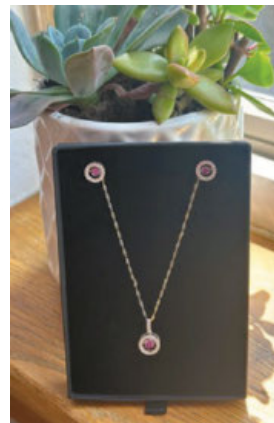

In the Gospel today, Jesus talks again about food. He tells us that when he shares His bread from Heaven, we also should share our earthly bread with others. He wants us to confirm our love for Him by showing our love for the people around us. Help us seek out the poor in our parish neighborhood. If you know someone in need, have them call 920-435-4040 ext 102, and tell their story. If they live in our parish neighborhood, we will be asked to follow up with them and find out how best we can help them. We find so many people wait until it is almost too late to make this call. They do not see themselves as "poor" and try to "tough it out", thinking their needs are only temporary. But another minor situation can put the eviction notice on their door. Please help us help others. We just need to know who they are.

TEMENOS OPORTUNIDADES PARA VOLUNTARIAR PARA NUESTRA IGLESIA Te necesitamos!

Set a fire down in my soul!
by Deacon Chuck and Eileen

WOW! We were so blessed to attend the Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis. It seems like the more we process this experience, the more robust our "WOW!" gets. We are deeply grateful to the Lord! It was incredible!

To be honest, the main reason we went was because it didn't seem like anyone was going. For us, it was about honoring Jesus. We didn't want only a few people to show up for Him in the Eucharistic Procession.

Everything was the absolute best: the speakers; the music; our prayer, Adoration, and praise. There was one song in particular that keeps singing to us:

*"Set a fire down in my soul
that I can't contain, I can't control.
I want more of You, God. I want more of You, God!"*

Opportunities to open our heart to receive our Lord's healing touch were abundant. And as a Church we were challenged to deeper repentance and conversion.

And the people! 60,000 strong! We met people from so many different states. Contrary to what the news tries to tell us, there are A LOT of people who love our Lord very deeply! This "remnant" of the Lord's is VAST and STRONG.

When it came time for the Eucharistic Procession on Saturday afternoon, Deacon Chuck vested and processed with the deacons. Eileen finished her afternoon session, and then joined the people lining the streets to welcome Our Lord. It was CRAZY! PEOPLE WERE EVERYWHERE!! People six to eight to ten deep on both sides of the street for a mile long! From newborns to elderly in wheelchairs. Waiting for Our Lord. Happy to be watching and waiting for Our Lord. It was hot, but no one minded. Cheering as the 1st Communicants and countless Sisters went by; then the seminarians, deacons, priests, bishops. There were THOUSANDS! It was stunning! As Our Eucharistic Lord came by, people fell to their knees on the concrete. Together our deep love and respect for the Lord was palpable; it reached down and touched our soul.

Then Our Eucharistic Lord was brought to an altar high above, overlooking all of us. It wasn't until it came time for the elevation of the monstrance and blessing of the pilgrims that it came together for us. Since this past Pentecost, from the four corners of the United States, Our Eucharistic Lord – Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity – had been making a huge cross over our entire country. It made us think of the 1st Passover and how the Israelites put the blood of the lamb on the two doorposts and lintel over their door. And our eyes were opened: this is what the Lord had just done for us! These four processions met in Indianapolis – and now, high above us all, Bishop Cozzens held Jesus up high and declared Him Lord! Blessed be God forever!

The insights keep coming, and it's taking a while for what just happened to sink into our hearts. It was the Lord who had called this Eucharistic Congress. We had thought this was someone's "really great idea", but we couldn't be more wrong. It was the Lord Himself who called us together. He knows His Church is hurting; He wanted this revival for us.

It is a sovereign movement of the Holy Spirit, and He is just getting started! This is the New Springtime that the Church has been praying for!! It WILL happen because it is the Lord's doing.

This revival is for you, too; it is for all people. It is time to prepare our heart to receive Him. We hope you watch videos of the Congress and Eucharistic procession on YouTube. It is so exciting to be alive at this time in Church history! God bless you!

*"Set a fire down in my soul
that I can't contain, I can't control.
I want more of You, God. I want more of You, God!"*

KIDS Corner

¡Enciende un fuego en mi alma!
por el diácono Chuck y Eileen

¡Wow! Fuimos muy bendecidos de asistir al Congreso Eucarístico en Indianápolis. Parece que cuanto más procesamos esta experiencia, más robusto se vuelve nuestro "¡WOW!" ¡Estamos profundamente agradecidos al Señor! ¡Fue increíble! Para ser honesto, la razón principal por la que fuimos fue porque no parecía que nadie fuera a ir. Para nosotros, se trataba de honrar a Jesús. No queríamos que solo unas pocas personas se presentaran para Él en la Procesión Eucarística.

Todo fue lo mejor: los altavoces; la música; nuestra oración, adoración y alabanza. Había una canción en particular que nos sigue cantando:

"Enciende un fuego en mi alma
que no puedo contener, no puedo controlar.
Quiero más de Ti, Dios. ¡Quiero más de Ti, Dios!"

Las oportunidades de abrir nuestro corazón para recibir el toque sanador de nuestro Señor fueron abundantes. Y como Iglesia fuimos desafiados a un arrepentimiento y una conversión más profundos. ¡Y la gente! ¡60.000 hombres! Conocimos a personas de muchos estados diferentes. Al contrario de lo que las noticias tratan de decirnos, ¡hay MUCHAS personas que aman a nuestro Señor muy profundamente! Este "remanente" del Señor es VASTO y FUERTE.

Cuando llegó el momento de la Procesión Eucarística el sábado por la tarde, el Diácono Chuck se vistió y procesionó con los diáconos. Eileen terminó su sesión de la tarde y luego se unió a la gente que se alineaba en las calles para dar la bienvenida a Nuestro Señor. ¡Fue una locura! ¡¡LA GENTE ESTABA POR TODAS PARTES!! ¡Gente de seis, ocho a diez de profundidad a ambos lados de la calle por una milla de largo! Desde recién nacidos hasta ancianos en sillas de ruedas. Esperando a Nuestro Señor. Feliz de estar velando y esperando a Nuestro Señor. Hacía calor, pero a nadie le importó. Animando como los 1º Comulgantes e innumerables Sisters pasó; luego los seminaristas, diáconos, sacerdotes, obispos. ¡Había MILES! ¡Fue impresionante! Cuando Nuestro Señor Eucarístico pasó, la gente cayó de rodillas sobre el cemento. Juntos, nuestro profundo amor y respeto por el Señor era palpable; Se extendió hasta abajo y tocó nuestra alma.

Entonces Nuestro Señor Eucarístico fue llevado a un altar en lo alto, dominando a todos nosotros. No fue hasta que llegó el momento de la elevación de la custodia y la bendición de los peregrinos que se unió para nosotros. Desde el pasado Pentecostés, desde los cuatro rincones de los Estados Unidos, Nuestro Señor Eucarístico – Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad – había estado haciendo una gran cruz por todo nuestro país. Nos hizo pensar en la 1ª Pascua y en cómo los israelitas pusieron la sangre del cordero en los dos postes de la puerta y en el dintel sobre su puerta. Y se nos abrieron los ojos: ¡esto es lo que el Señor acababa de hacer por nosotros! Estas cuatro procesiones se reunieron en Indianápolis, y ahora, muy por encima de todos nosotros, el obispo Cozzens levantó a Jesús y lo declaró Señor. ¡Bendito sea Dios por siempre!

Las percepciones siguen llegando, y está tomando un tiempo para que lo que acaba de suceder se hunda en nuestros corazones. Era el Señor quien había convocado este Congreso Eucarístico.

Habíamos pensado que se trataba de una "gran idea" de alguien, pero no podíamos estar más equivocados. Fue el Señor mismo quien nos convocó. Él sabe que Su Iglesia está sufriendo; Él quería este avivamiento para nosotros.

Es un movimiento soberano del Espíritu Santo, ¡y Él apenas está comenzando! ¡Esta es la Nueva Primavera por la que la Iglesia ha estado orando! Sucederá porque es obra del Señor. Este avivamiento también es para ti; Es para todas las personas. Es tiempo de preparar nuestro corazón para recibirlo. Esperamos ver los videos del Congreso y la procesión eucarística en YouTube. ¡Es tan emocionante estar vivo en este momento de la historia de la Iglesia! ¡Que dios te bendiga!

"Enciende un fuego en mi alma
que no puedo contener, no puedo controlar.
Quiero más de Ti, Dios. ¡Quiero más de Ti, Dios!"
