19th Sunday of Ordinary Times

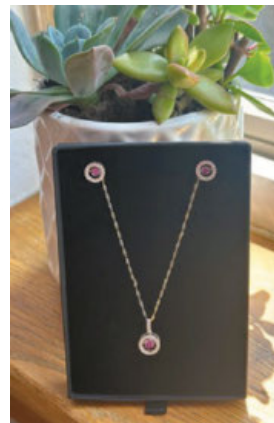

In the Gospel today, the crowds that follow Jesus still don't understand. They think of bread as bodily nourishment. Through our faith and understanding, we now know that Jesus is talking about the Bread of Life. And by eating the Bread of Life, we try to emulate Jesus in His life of self-giving. Please continue your support of helping our neighbors in need. In July we provided a bus pass for a young person starting a new job on the other side of town. We provided a bus pass to a retired person needing to see his doctor every week. We provided a bus pass to a mother who can now pick up food at Paul's Pantry and shop at our SVdP thrift store. A monthly bus pass costs $39. Please buy a bus pass for someone who cannot afford the cost of a car by placing a contribution into an envelope marked SVdP and dropping it into the collection box next weekend. God will love you for it.

For the sake of The Church . . .
by Deacon Chuck and Eileen

We are in the middle of a revival, a sovereign movement of the Holy Spirit. HE is the One who called the Eucharistic Congress last month in Indianapolis to revive His Church. He is setting a fire down in the heart of His Church.

BUT THERE IS A 2nd PART, equally important: each of us must return to Him as our 1st Love.

Maybe you can remember a time when you first gave your heart to the Lord, a time when you first came to know that the Lord was real and that He cared about you personally. Oh the joy and peace in your heart! You understood and finally believed that God loves you and had a mission for you to fulfill. It was as if He had set a fire down in your soul, and your life became vibrant and alive! It was as if you were the main character in a Love Story with the Lord. Everyone around you could see you were different.

But then time passed; life got busy and the cares and concerns of the world started crowding Him out. Maybe you stopped showing up for your prayer time, you stopped going to Mass every Sunday; maybe you started embracing the ways of the world. You turned lukewarm.

But the Lord in His mercy still wants us as His Bride. Even with all our sins and times where we have betrayed Him, He still wants us as His Bride. He is calling us back to Himself as individuals and as a Church to return to Him as our 1st Love.

At the Congress, Fr. Mike Schmitz said there are things in our life that are competing with God for #1. He said if there is going to be a real revival, there must be repentance. If I have lost the fire of my love for the Lord, I need to repent.

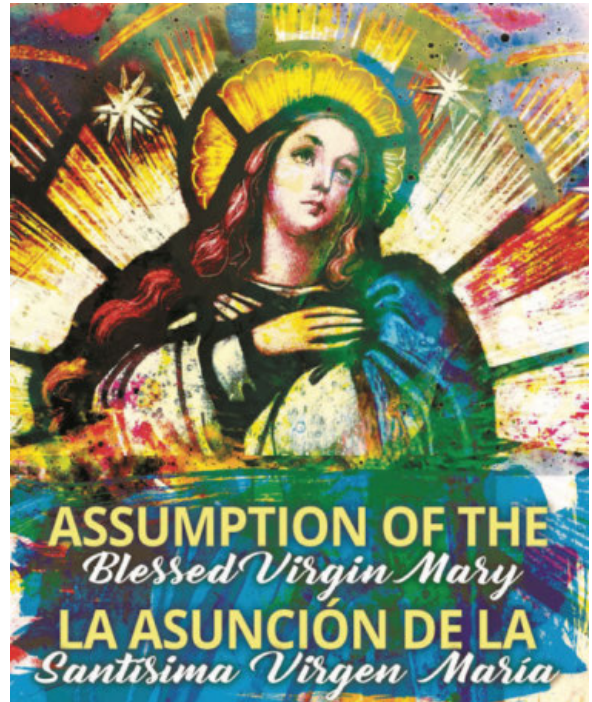

He challenged us, "What are the fire extinguishers in my life?" We must identify the things in our lives that are competing with God – and come up with a plan on how to put them in their proper place.

Sr. Josephine Garrett continued this exhortation as she called out the sins and failings of each group present (much in the fashion of Rev 2-3 "but I have this against you"). She began with the Bishops. There were 206 Bishops in attendance. To be honest, we were uncomfortable as she did this in front of all of us. But then she went on and called out the sins of each of us: the priests, fellow religious, families, and single people – all of us.

Ouch! When the Lord hits the nail on the head, it stings, but this is how we get strong and holy again. He must be #1 in our life; He must be Lord.

Please watch these talks on YouTube. We need everyone participating. It is crucial that we as a Church repent and return to Him as our 1st Love FOR THE SAKE OF THE CHURCH. The response each one of us makes now is extremely important – we can help the Church or weaken it.

A New Pentecost IS coming. God bless you!

Por el bien de la Iglesia . . .

por el diácono Chuck y Eileen

Estamos en medio de un avivamiento, un movimiento soberano del Espíritu Santo. Él es el que convocó el Congreso Eucarístico el mes pasado en Indianápolis para reavivar Su Iglesia. Él está encendiendo un fuego en el corazón de Su Iglesia.

pero hay una 2ª PARTE, igualmente importante: cada uno de nosotros debe volver a Él como nuestro 1º Amor.

Tal vez puedas recordar una ocasión en la que le entregaste tu corazón al Señor por primera vez, una época en la que llegaste a saber por primera vez que el Señor era real y que se preocupaba por ti personalmente. ¡Oh la alegría y la paz en tu corazón! Entendiste y finalmente creíste que Dios te ama y tenía una misión que cumplir. ¡Era como si Él hubiera encendido un fuego en tu alma, y tu vida se volvió vibrante y viva! Era como si fueras el personaje principal de una historia de amor con el Señor. Todos a tu alrededor podían ver que eras diferente.

Pero luego pasó el tiempo; la vida se volvió ocupada y las preocupaciones y preocupaciones del mundo comenzaron a desplazarlo. Tal vez dejaste de presentarte a tu tiempo de oración, dejaste de ir a misa todos los domingos; Tal vez comenzaste a abrazar los caminos del mundo. Te volviste tibio.

Pero el Señor, en su misericordia, todavía nos quiere como su esposa. Incluso con todos nuestros pecados y momentos en los que lo hemos traicionado, Él todavía nos quiere como Su Novia. Él nos está llamando a volver a Él como individuos y como Iglesia para que regresemos a Él como nuestro primer Amor.

En el Congreso, el P. Mike Schmitz dijo que hay cosas en nuestra vida que están compitiendo con Dios por el #1. Dijo que si va a haber un verdadero avivamiento, debe haber arrepentimiento. Si he perdido el fuego de mi amor por el Señor, necesito arrepentirme.

Nos desafió: "¿Qué son los extintores en mi vida?" Debemos identificar las cosas en nuestras vidas que están compitiendo con Dios, y elaborar un plan sobre cómo ponerlas en el lugar que les corresponde.

Sor Josephine Garrett continuó esta exhortación mientras llamaba a los pecados y faltas de cada grupo presente (muy a la manera de Ap 2-3 "pero tengo esto contra ti"). Comenzó con los obispos. Asistieron 206 obispos. Para ser honestos, nos sentimos incómodos cuando ella hizo esto frente a todos nosotros. Pero luego continuó y llamó a los pecados de cada uno de nosotros: los sacerdotes, los compañeros religiosos, las familias y las personas solteras, todos nosotros.

¡¡ Ay! Cuando el Señor da en el clavo, pica, pero así es como volvemos a ser fuertes y santos. Él debe ser el #1 en nuestra vida; Él debe ser el Señor.

Por favor, vea estas charlas en YouTube. Necesitamos que todos participen. Es crucial que nosotros, como Iglesia, nos arrepintamos y regresemos a Él como nuestro primer Amor POR EL BIEN DE LA IGLESIA. La respuesta que cada uno de nosotros da ahora es extremadamente importante: podemos ayudar a la Iglesia o debilitarla.

Un nuevo Pentecostés está llegando. ¡Que dios te bendiga!
