Society of St. Vincent de Paul

On Friday, September 27, we will be celebrating the feast day of our patron, St. Vincent de Paul. Vincent listened when Jesus said, "Blessed are the sorrowing, for they shall be consoled. Blessed are the lowly, for they shall inherit the land. Blessed are those who show mercy, for mercy will be theirs". For Vincent, loving others was central to his life. He put love into practice. He said, "let us love God, but let it be with the strength of our arms and the sweat of our brows." He spent his life being a servant to the poor. We Vincentians like to get our hands dirty. We labor long and hard. We visit the poor and the lonely. We visit young struggling families, single mothers and old, lonely people. We visit them in their homes and listen to their words. As St. Vincent once said, "we must first do and then teach the Gospel".

Faith Formation/Religious Education News

SOMETIMES WE NEED A FRIEND TO SHOW US THE PATH TO CHRIST

Do you know someone who would like to learn more about the Catholic faith and possibly become Catholic? Please invite them to join our OCIA class. You could accompany them as their sponsor. The OCIA process is for adults who are:

- not baptized,
- baptized in another faith but want to learn more about the Catholic faith,
- Catholic who haven't received all the sacraments, or Catholics who want to learn more about their faith. The classes are small, informal, informative, and fun, but there is never any pressure to join the Catholic faith. We will begin on Sept 11. Come join us! Call the office for more information. God bless you.

Dear Parish Family,

This weekend, as we hear Jesus once again talking to the disciples about His Passion and suffering, we have one of the most tender images of Jesus. The disciples don't understand what Jesus is talking about, because they are too concerned about who is the greatest. In the midst of their egocentric attitudes, Jesus takes a child and puts His arms around him. The disciples are full of themselves, they can't even hear about Jesus' sufferings, but Our Lord so tenderly embraces a child. There are not a lot of images in Scriptures of Jesus lovingly embracing a child. This takes place right after Our Lord talked about His suffering.

All that Jesus went through was for the sake of loving you, His beloved child. Take the opportunity to sit in prayer with this Gospel passage. God wants to embrace you in His love. There is a tremendous love longing to be poured upon you in His mercy. God came down from heaven so that He could embrace us and show us the great tenderness of His love so that we would let Him lead us into heaven. This loving embrace of Our Lord is what happens to every soul when we pray. As we turn to Jesus in prayer, we are embraced in His mercy.

The disciples were too busy thinking about themselves and their greatness. The child was probably marveling looking at Jesus, with a heart full of wonder as he looked at the Lord, and as Jesus embraced him. How often do we spend time simply looking at Jesus, marveling at the presence of Our Lord? This child wasn't worried about himself, but rather attentive to Jesus. Unfortunately very often we are like the disciples, just full of ourselves and not approaching Our Lord with a heart full of wonder, attentive to Jesus Himself.

Today Our Lord desires our attentive heart, so that He can embrace us in His mercy. Think about how this child felt as he was embraced by Jesus.

Wouldn't you like to experience the same beautiful love? He is waiting for us.

In His Most Sacred Heart,
Fr. José

KIDS Corner

Which one of them was the greatest?

Estimada Familia Parroquial,
Este fin de semana, mientras escuchamos a Jesús hablar una vez más con los discípulos sobre Su pasión y sufrimiento, tenemos una de las imágenes más tiernas de Jesús. Los discípulos no entienden de qué está hablando, porque están demasiado preocupados por quién es el mejor. En medio de sus actitudes egocéntricas, Jesús toma a un niño y lo abraza. Los discípulos están llenos de sí mismos, ni siquiera pueden oír hablar de los sufrimientos de Jesús, pero Nuestro Señor abraza con tanta ternura a un niño. No hay muchas imágenes en las Escrituras de Jesús abrazando amorosamente a alguien. Esto ocurre inmediatamente después de que Jesús habló de Su sufrimiento.

Todo lo que Jesús pasó fue por amarte a ti, su amado hijo/a. Aprovecha para sentarte en oración con este pasaje del Evangelio. Dios quiere abrazarte en su amor. Hay un amor tremendo que anhela ser derramado sobre nosotros en Su misericordia. Dios bajó del cielo para abrazarnos y mostrarnos la gran ternura de su amor para que nos dejáramos conducir al cielo. Este abrazo amoroso es lo que le sucede a cada alma cuando oramos. Cuando nos dirigimos a Jesús en oración, somos abrazados por Su misericordia.

Los discípulos estaban demasiado ocupados pensando en sí mismos y en su grandeza. El niño probablemente estaba maravillado mirando a Jesús, con el corazón lleno de asombro al mirar al Señor, y Jesús lo abraza. ¿Con qué frecuencia pasamos tiempo simplemente mirando a Jesús, maravillándonos de Su presencia? Este niño no estaba preocupado por sí mismo, sino atento a Jesús. Desgraciadamente muchas veces somos como los discípulos, simplemente llenos de nosotros mismos y sin acercarnos a Nuestro Señor con el corazón lleno de asombro, atentos a Jesús mismo.

Hoy Nuestro Señor desea nuestro corazón atento, para poder abrazarnos en su misericordia. Piense en cómo se sintió este niño cuando fue abrazado por Jesús.

¿No te gustaría experimentar el mismo hermoso amor? Él nos está esperando.

En Su Sacratísimo Corazón,
P. José
