Society of St. Vincent de Paul
 In the Gospel today, Jesus continues to speak directly to us on what we need to do to get the Heaven. Last week He talked to us about the need to share our possessions with others. This week He talks to us about sharing our very life with others. "Anyone among you who aspires to greatness must serve the rest; whoever wants to rank first must serve the needs of all". We all want to be first in God's eyes, but being a servant to others sounds kind of weird. It is not. Parents take care of their children. Spouses do thoughtful things for each other. Co-workers support each other on the job. We are all one Body! Now if you really want to gain some ground on the road to Heaven, consider joining our Society. We will show you how best you can help others who are in real need. Call us at 920-606-0406 and we will help you make that road to Heaven a wide and straight one.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 20, 2024
29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

From a young age, I loved winning at sports. I confess that winning was a bit of an addiction. It was probably coming from a deep desire for attention and affirmation from others. Nevertheless, it was a driving motivation for me. Baseball, soccer, track, table tennis, and whatever else I could find was a chance to win. Competition was my obsession.

Another John, and his brother James, demonstrate a kind of wildly competitive obsession when they dare to say to Jesus: "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory" (Mark 10:37). Their audacity arouses an indigent reaction from the other apostles, who are clearly raw that these two are out to win the highest spots.

How does Jesus respond to us in our desires for greatness? The same way he does to James and John. He does not criticize them for their desire for glory. But he does highlight their ignorance ("you do not know what you are asking."). Then he invites them to be champions of true greatness: by drinking not the cup of worldly victory, but his cup of self-giving suffering love, to be the "slave of all." The true winners are slaves of love. This week, dare to tell Jesus what your ambitions truly are. Hear him call you to an even greater victory.

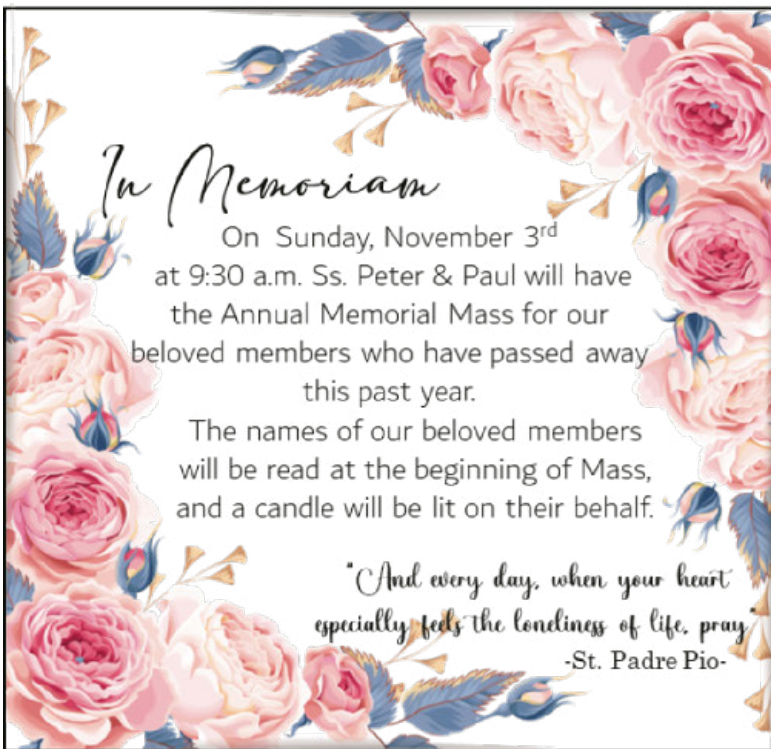

— Father John Muir

THE HISTORY OF THE CHRIST OF THE KING ADORATION CHAPEL, Ss PETER & PAUL, PARISH
Reflections on the Beginnings-Part I "Gathering the People"

Msgr. Klister, pastor of our parish, and his small Adoration Chapel group headed by Sharon Van Ooyen received permission from Bishop Banks to start the chapel in late fall 1999, after five long years of prayers and petitions. The bishop felt our church had come up with a plan that was safe and secure for all. The bishop included a request for prayers for priestly vocations are one of the chapel's regular intentions. Now the difficult task of finding people to fill one-hour weekly commitments lay ahead along with finding a suitable spot on the church grounds. An appeal was made to the entire urban and suburban area for assistance in the planning. To be continued...

HISTORIA DE LA CAPILLA DE ADORACIÓN DEL CRISTO REY PARROQUIA DE SAN PEDRO Y SAN PABLO
Reflexiones sobre la parte inicial "Reuniendo a la gente"

Monseñor Klister, párroco de nuestra parroquia, y su pequeño grupo de Capilla de Adoración encabezado por Sharon Van Ooyen recibieron el permiso del Obispo Banks para comenzar la capilla a finales del otoño de 1999, después de cinco largos años de oraciones y peticiones. El obispo sintió que nuestra Iglesia había elaborado un plan que era seguro para todos. El obispo incluyó una petición de oraciones por las vocaciones sacerdotales son una de las intenciones regulares de la capilla. Ahora quedaba por delante la difícil tarea de encontrar personas que cumplieran con los compromisos semanales de una hora, junto con encontrar un lugar adecuado en los terrenos de la iglesia. Se hizo un llamado a toda la zona urbana y suburbana para que ayudara en la planificación. Continuara...

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA (Gospel Meditations)

20 de octubre de 2024

29º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Ciertamente que en el evangelio de hoy se pasaron de listos los discípulos Santiago y Juan. Ya que le pidieron a Jesús algo que causó enojo en el resto del grupo de los doce. Y no pedían poca cosa, nada más y nada menos que sentarse a la derecha de Jesús, cuando estuviera en su gloria. De hecho, no sabían lo que pedían, ni siquiera imaginaban que para ello se tiene que servir y trabajar duro en cuestión del discipulado. Sin embargo, hay que entenderlos desde un punto de vista muy humano, pretender grandezas y buenos puestos nos gusta a todos. Y más si no implica sacrificio alguno.

Jesús deja muy claro lo que significa seguirlo y desear estar en primer lugar: "El que quiera ser el más importante entre ustedes, debe hacerse el servidor de todos. Y el que quiera ser el primero, se hará esclavo de todos" (Marcos 10: 43-44). Es decir, no oprimir a los demás como si fuesen sus dueños, no imponer sus ideas, ni sus condiciones de opresión. Para que quede más claro aún, la ley del Reino de Dios es el sufrimiento y el servicio a los que nos rodean. ¿Crees esto? ¿Te atreverías pedirle a Jesús sentarte a su lado sin hacer nada por los demás? Reflexiona en tu vida actualmente, no corras el riesgo de extraviarte en bagatelas por los caminos de la vida. Si escuchas los consejos de Jesús a sus discípulos de aquel entonces, verás que son los mismos para nosotros ahora. Servir y amar sin condiciones, dar la vida en el día a día con alegría, dejando el perfume de Cristo a nuestro paso.

En Memoria

El domingo 3 de noviembre a las 9:30 a.m., tendremos la Misa Anual en Memoria de nuestros queridos familiares que fallecieron el año pasado. Sus nombres se leerán al comienzo de la Misa y se encenderá una vela en su nombre. La misa será en Inglés
